

Project GRAD
Brumley-GRAD Scholar Chronicle
2010-2011

Staff Application

Thank you for your interest in being a staff member of the Brumley-GRAD Scholar Chronicle, for the 2010-2011 school year. Attached is an application to be completed and submitted on or before August 15, 2010, 5 pm EST. The Chronicle search committee will be highly selective to ensure that the Scholars chosen are leaders, highly motivated, role models, work well with professionals, staff, and students as well as have an understanding of the expectation of their roles on the Chronicle staff.

Because of the caliber and the responsibilities of being a Chronicle staff member, there is a two stage process for selecting ideal Scholars: 1) Application submission and review; 2) A one page essay for all applicants seeking writing/editing positions. Again, applications must be emailed, faxed, or mailed by 5pm (EST) August 15th. Again thank you for your interest.

Please submit your application along with your required writing and/or graphic design sample via email, U.S. postal service, or fax to:
